[Note: Communion will be Saturday night 31st December – part of New Year's Eve programme.]

LOCATION On the Great Ocean Road at Anglesea, the camp is located 110 kilometres from Melbourne and is situated off the main highway between Geelong and Anglesea, the camp entrance is located opposite the CFA just as you arrive in Anglesea. Melways Ref - Map 196 H5.

PROGRAM Morning meetings at 10.00 am and Night meetings at 7.30 pm each day - includes Bible study and talks, prayer times, testimonies and much fellowship; plus beach days, games, eating, sleeping, chatting & just relaxing. There is plenty of free time for other activities of your choice.

SPECIAL NOTE: 1. Communion will be Saturday night 31st December – part of New Year's Eve programme.] There is no meeting on Sunday 1st January, just sleep-in (?) and have brunch and fellowship for the last meal of the camp.

SPECIAL NOTE: 2. Camp fees are calculated on a daily basis - if you require accommodation for any night you must pay for three meals as well as the accommodation. Camp conditions are now much more stringent in this area. You should note this when determining what time you might arrive or depart from camp. You cannot pick and choose which meals you want, you must pay for a complete day. All breakfasts are Continental (cereal, fruit, toast, tea, coffee, juices).
BRUNCH ON SUNDAY 1ST JANUARY IS MORE ELABORATE!

YOU ARE ENCOURAGED TO STAY FOR THE WHOLE CAMP (6 NIGHTS).

MEALS The camp daily fee includes all meals; professionally prepared (you do not cook!). This includes a Continental breakfast, varied lunch and two-course cooked tea. Hot and cold drinks, snacks, biscuits and fruit are available all day - so help yourself. Special dietary requirements (such as non-dairy or vegetarian etc.) are catered for if notified in advance on your booking form.

Please note that you cannot specify to miss some meals, you must pay for all three meals each day if you are staying overnight.
