The Port Macquarie Revival Fellowship is happy announce the return of the Bonny Hills Easter Camp for 2018. Under new management with refurbished accommodation options in the beautiful surrounds of Bonny Hills, just 20 minutes South of Port Macquarie, NSW.

The camp is fully catered for and people are expected to stay in the camp accommodation.

Checking in from 9am on Friday 30th March your first meal will be Lunch. You'll enjoy top quality accomodation and meals 3 times a day, plus morning and afternoon tea and supper at night. Your last meal will be Monday lunch.

The camp is dormitory style accommodation designed to sleep 8 guests with its own en-suite bathroom. You will need to bring your own bed linen and towels. Preference will be given to families to accommodate stay together in their own cabin.

Port Macquarie is continuing to grow and we are keen for fellowship and love to spread the gospel. During your free time, you can enjoy tennis (bring rackets & balls), swimming pool, surfing, golfing, fishing, shopping, coffee shopping, walks along the beach, or visit the many and varied attractions, or have absolutely no reason to go out of the camp, just relax by the pool and soak up the fellowship.

Benefits of choosing Port Macquarie Easter Camp 2018 include:

- Camp will be occupied exclusively by the us
- Tennis, pool and basketball on site
- 10 minutes walk to surf beach
- Great for families, no cooking for parents!
- Great for Youngies
- Australia's best climate
- Great opportunity for outreaching
- 4.5 hours from Sydney
- Great for just relaxing and enjoying fellowship

All bookings require a min 50% non refundable deposit no later than 13th March. Alternative payment option is by direct deposit, details on request. To secure your booking at camp please contact us immediately.
