I found peace

My parents were not religious, but when I was young I decided that God was real. When I was 12-years-old I suffered anxiety, feeling wretched and unforgiven.

I spoke to a brother in the Lord and he prayed over me. I immediately felt a warmth inside me and was at peace with God.

I wasn't expecting it, and it was like nothing I had experienced before.

Unfortunately, I ended up running away from God and brought strife upon myself again. I was using foul language and became immoral which led to an online addiction.

Over my senior high school years, I fractured my ankle and had two knee reconstructions which led me to question my faith and I started turning back to God.

I was baptised in water on the 19th January 2021 and received God's Holy Spirit, speaking in other tongues.

Now I have a relationship with God and can see myself changing day by day as I trust in His Spirit living in me.
